Precious Beauty

White marbles can trace its history to Mounts Apennine, Alps and Apuan in regions of Tuscany in northern Italy all the way to the Jurassic Era over 190 million years ago. Lime sediments undersea brought tremendous changes to the crystal structure of rocks and uncovered the most precious marble treasure in the world. During the Renaissance in the 15th century, Sculptor Michelangelo spent 9 months at Mount Apennine, adjacent to mount Cararra, in search of marble with vitality for completing his sculpture ---David. "I saw the angel in the marble; I carved until I set him free." He finally presented to the world one of the greatest statues. Sculptors such as Michelangelo, Leonardo Da Vinci often-used the most premium white marbles in the world, including Statuario Calacatta: which originates from Mount Apuan, featured with natural carving patterns.
