Inspired by the Brazilian city of tiles - San Luis de Maranhão - the São Luis collection presents bespoke designs of an important Portuguese influence with colors from the ancient Brazilian Caribbean. This type of designs can still be found nowadays in the facades of the historic center of this city built during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.

This 60x60cm porcelain tile collection is scored to a 10x20cm size to recreate the original smaller tiles. São Luis is ideal for any residential space, indoor and outdoor, due to a new technique that offers higher adherence with a smoother finish that is just as convenient for public spaces.
